

- WHAT TO DO IN VALENCIA

Beach

- Enjoy a nice walk along the Malvarrosa, sunbathe, refresh yourself with a beer and some tapas or eat a paella (see the “where to eat” list below)
- During the evening, join the atmosphere of the port for a drink (Azul Sunset Point, Marina Beach)

Ciudad de las Artes y las Ciencias

- Not so far from the beach you can enjoy one of the most unique and Instagrammable places in Spain! If you have time and love animals, you can go to the Oceanographic, the largest aquarium in Europe
- Then take a walk along the Valencia old river, which is now the longest park in Spain, towards Valencia City Center
- You can end your day by having some drinks in the Alameda (Palau Alameda)

City Center

- Visit the historical side of Valencia: Plaza del Ayuntamiento, Plaza de la Virgen, Catedral De Valencia, Iglesia de San Nicolás, El Mercado Central, La Lonja de la Seda y Las Torres de Serrano
- Take a stroll through all kind of stores (Colon, Jorge Juan, Sorni streets) and have a beer or an horchata in the Mercado de Colón
- At night, go eat, drink and dance to the most lively areas of Valencia’s city center: El Carmen and Ruzafa (see the “where to eat” list below)
